

Porter Twp. Community Library
Summer Program 2014
June Strouse

We had a total of 72 children participating in our program Lowest attendance day was 32 and largest day was 54 children and 25 adults

Ages 2 -15. The older children helped with activities and crafts.
510 books were checked out.

We had children from Lamar, Lamar Twp., Mill Hall, Lock Haven, Howard, Jacksonvillr, Bellefonte, Elimsport, Mount Union, and Chambersburg.

Donation were from

Trican Well Service—A Barnes & Noble Gift card for each child to receive a book on their level.

Ingram's Market- a coupon for a free ice cream cone for everyone.

Flying J.- 4 cases of water

Barnes & Noble a coupon for a free book when paper was filled out and returned to the store

The Nittany Valley Fire Co. came with the engine & the Rescue Unit. They gave a wonderful presentation to the children. The children had the opportunity to try on the fire gear, and sit in the rescue unit, and sound the siren

We supported the SPCA by collecting food, treats, cleaning supplies, and paper products

Guest Readers were

Kelly Hastings, Sue Dotterer, Movias Young, Dee Lyle, Tracie
Heller, Roberta Muthler,

Lisa Williams, Chris Feerrar, Germaine Weaver, Jaime Strunk

Assisting with program were

Dee Miller, Pat Strunk, Jean Belford, Lisa Grieb, Jane Dent, Movias Young, Tracie Heller, Amy Knight, Joan Williams, Jaime Strunk, Penny Strunk, Rebeccah Brungard, Emily Brungard, and Jessica Marconi